

KINSTON BETA CLUB ENJOYS ACTIVE YEAR

A meeting of the Kinston Beta Club was held on April 20. The president took charge. Several discussions of previous unfinished business were taken up and a general summary of the year's work was made by Mr. Nevin. Plans for a week-end on the Coast were discussed. Mr. Anderson, science instructor and basketball coach, explained the general outline for the organization of a Victory Corps to become active at the beginning of the next school term.

During this school year the Beta Club has sponsored a war bond and stamp drive, which proved very successful. Interest was created by a repetition of sales among the different classes in high school.

Above expenses the Beta Club has cleared $105 from a school supply store. With the money the club has purchased a loudspeaker and a speaker stand for the Kinston High School auditorium. The club is looking forward to an even more prosperous year next year.

Rue Nette Qualls, Rep. Mr. and Mrs. Curry Taylor spent several days last week in Cross City, Fla., visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Taylor.

Let's Double Our Quota

There is no restriction of farm slaughter of beef, veal, lamb and pork for home use. However, farmers are urged to conserve home-slaughtered meat carefully, observing the 2½ pounds per person per week request. If any home-slaughtered meat leaves the farm for delivery to other persons, the farmer immediately becomes subject to regulations of non-quota slaughterers who cannot deliver for civilian use during a current period any more beef, pork, lamb or mutton than they did during the corresponding period in 1941.

Warfare use has served to popularize dehydrated eggs to such an extent that the Government has reserved the entire 1943 production of spray-dried whole eggs, leaving civilians the same amount of other dehydrated products as in 1942.

It is hoped that people in Coffee County will use this program for the purposes for which it was intended and that it will not be necessary for the War Price Rationing Board at New Brockton to report violations.

Harlie B. Johnson, son of Mrs. A. L. Johnson, Route 2, Troy, is now stationed at South Plains Army Flying School, Lubbock, Texas, the "Home of the Winged Commandos." Upon completion of his training in the giant cargo and troop-carrying gliders, he will receive a commission as second lieutenant or an appointment to flight officer. In civilian life he was a farmer.

Mrs. A. A. Owens, of New Brockton, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. G. M. Prescott, and family, in Elba.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh S. Prescott and baby, of Albany, Ga., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Prescott and family during the week-end.

Go to Church Sunday!

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Chapman had as their guests on Easter Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Macon Killingsworth and son, Horace, of Troy; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Boutwell, of Troy, Route 2; Mr. and Mrs. Braswell Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Chapman, of Dethan.

Mrs. A. C. Dunaway, Ann Dunaway, Mrs. Kline Bentley, Mary Ida Bentley, Betty Jean Jones and Mrs. T. B. Bryan were visitors to Montgomery Saturday.

M. P. and Mrs. Gus Young, Jr., of Terrell, Texas, are spending a few days in Elba with Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Young and family.

SUGAR AVAILABLE FOR HOME CANNING

Auburn, Ala.—Sugar for home canning of 1943 fruit crops will be available to housewives on approximately the same basis as last season, announced Price Administrator Prentiss M. Brown in a letter to P. O. Davis, director, Extension Service, A. P. I.

No deduction of blue (processed foods) point stamps will be made from War Ration Book Two for sugar obtained for this purpose.

In the 1942 season, housewives applied to their local boards for allotments of sugar on the basis of one pound for each four quarts of fruit that it was planned to can, and, in addition, for one pound for each member of the family. Roughly the same pattern will be used to give home canning allotments this year, although there will be some refinements in procedure. Formal amendments giving details of the program will be issued within the next few days.

"The allotment of sugar for home canning reflects my desire to see America's housewives preserve the fullest possible amount of the 1943 fruit crop," said Mr. Brown. "We cannot afford to let fruit go bad for want of sugar to preserve it, even though sugar itself is rationed."

Kirke Allred, Aviation Chief Electrician Mate, was transferred last week to Pensacola, Fla., from San Diego, Calif., where he has been stationed for several months. During his sixteen years' service in the Navy, Kirke has always had an assignment on ship, and news of his assignment to the Pensacola base brings joy to his family and friends. Mrs. Allred and little daughter move down from Montgomery Friday and joined Mr. and Mrs. Guy Folsom for a week-end visit to Pensacola.

Mrs. S. Allred was already in Pensacola, guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Richburg.

A government report tells that a mass electrocution was carried out at Bzadz. Deportees from Warsaw were packed into a barracks and ordered to strip naked, ostensibly to have a bath—then they were pushed into a room with a metal floor. The door was locked and current was passed. Death came instantaneously. A large digging machine was installed near by to dig mass graves.

Wise Explains His Stand. Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, acting as chairman of a special conference of Jewish organizations, announced here that the organizations were convinced of the authenticity of a rumored Hitler order for the immediate extermination of all Jews in Germany-controlled Europe.

He listed the organizations for which he spoke as the American Jewish Congress, American Jewish Labor Committee, Agudath Harabanim, B'nai B'rith, Synagogue Council of America and the World Jewish Congress.

These organizations, Rabbi Wise said, had authorized him to invite the aid of any Christian organization ready to speak out on behalf of the Jewish victims.

Rabbi Wise explained that his group believed in the authenticity of the extermination order on the basis of affidavits obtained by the state department from Jewish sources of information in free countries.

Rabbi Wise said the state department documents included affidavits from "reliable persons who knew of such atrocities as turning Jewish bodies into fat and soap and lubricants, and of the latest Nazi method of killing Jews by having doctors inject air bubbles into their veins. He said the earlier gassing with prussic acid had been found too expensive.

Australia Acts to Feed All Troops in War Area
CANNBERRA—A major increase in Australia's food production was mapped by Australian and U. S. officials after notice that all ships from the U. S. now must carry munitions and other war supplies. Food will not be shipped, and Australia now must feed all troops in this war area.

Supply Minister John Beasley, who is also the head of the ministry of shipping, was working on the problem.

Cotton Picker Is Back On Job at Age of 103
CASA GRANDE, ARIZ.—John Gordon, who claims he's 103, is going back to work as a cotton picker. The transplanted Tennessee says he picked cotton during the Civil, Spanish American and World War I, and, by cracky, he can do it again. His brother, Robert, 80, recently picked 299 pounds of short staple in a day.

3. The War Price Rationing Board No. 10 at New Brockton will mail sugar purchase certificates together with War Ration Book No. One back to applicant.

4. The War Price Rationing Board at New Brockton will issue the sugar purchase certificates by taking into consideration the need for sugar and also the ration issued by the O.P.A., each consumer may get one pound of sugar per 4 quarts of finished canned fruits or fruit juices up to 25 pounds. Not more than 5 pounds per person may be issued for making jams, jellies, preserves and fruit butters. The five pounds for this purpose, however, is included in the 25 pounds of sugar per person allowed.

People of Coffee County are reminded that this home canning program is a war program and that the sugar is to be used strictly for purposes outlined above.

It is hoped that people in Coffee County will use this program for the purposes for which it was intended and that it will not be necessary for the War Price Rationing Board at New Brockton to report violations.

Miss Margie B. Matthews and Miss Margaret Reddick, home and assistant home agents; Mrs. Obie Ellis and Mrs. Ruth Armor, farm women; Sybil Garaway, and Sarah Nichols, Victrolas, will present the women's program.

The Pig Chain will be discussed by D. H. James, Enterprise, cold storage owner and farmer; J. E. Plant, farmer; Junior Johnson, pig chain boy; Hugh D. Sexton and H. T. King, farm and assistant farm agents.

Coffee County folk, particularly, are urged to tune in and hear this splendid program by their friends and neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Smith and little daughter, Linda, of Hinesville, Ga., are spending the week in Elba, guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brunson, and other relatives.

Friends of Mrs. J. R. Patrick will regret to learn that she is ill at her home on Simmons street, suffering from malaria fever.

Mr. Fred Folsom, of Montgomery, visited his mother, Mrs. M. F. Folsom, and family, during the week-end.

VOLUME 46

Ration Board States Plan For Securing Sugar For Canning

People in Coffee County who are in need or will need sugar for the purpose of canning fruits are hereby notified that the following plan has been worked out for Coffee County.

1. Those needing sugar to can fruits and fruit juices are instructed to go to their nearest community store. The merchant will assist them in filing OPA Form R 315. Persons are instructed to take War Ration Book No. One for each member of the family to the community store. Persons are also instructed to take the record of the number of quarts of all fruits and juices that were canned in 1942. One member of the family can file an application for the entire family.

2. The applications taken by the community store operator together with the War Ration Book No. One for each application will be mailed in to the War Price and Rationing Board No. 10, New Brockton, Alabama, for the Board's consideration.

3. The War Price Rationing Board No. 10 at New Brockton will mail sugar purchase certificates together with War Ration Book No. One back to applicant.

4. CRIPPLED CHILDREN TO GO TO CLINIC MAY 14

Twenty-five of Coffee and Geneva Counties' crippled children will go to Andalusia, Friday, May 14, to attend the second clinic of the year, which will be held by Dr. Hannon, orthopedic surgeon of Mobile and state representative in the work with crippled children.

Following an examination and X-ray in the clinic, Dr. Hannon will make recommendations by seal sales, the children have received treatment which would not otherwise have been possible. Two braces and as many specially built shoes have been provided in Coffee County during the past year.

The Geneva group will be accompanied to Andalusia by Mrs. Marguerite Bricken and the Coffee group will be in charge of Miss Laverne Johnson, public health nurse.

Dr. G. L. Weidner, district health officer, announces that the high school pupils in the New Brockton school will complete their physical examination this week. This will include dental and other physical examination. The eyes of these pupils have already received examination.

Three recorded programs by Coffee County agricultural workers, farmers, farm women and business men will be broadcast over Station WCAV, Montgomery, and WAPI, Birmingham, at 12:30 p. m. on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 17, 18 and 19.

Three subjects will be discussed: "Coffee County Farmers Go To War," "Coffee County Women in the Food Production Battle," and "The Coffee County Pig Chain."

Participating in the first named will be Hugh D. Sexton, county farm agent; J. B. Martin, Enterprise farmer; W. B. Manning of the Enterprise Farmers Exchange, and W. L. Walsh, Elba agricultural worker.

Miss Margie B. Matthews and Miss Margaret Reddick, home and assistant home agents; Mrs. Obie Ellis and Mrs. Ruth Armor, farm women; Sybil Garaway, and Sarah Nichols, Victrolas, will present the women's program.

IN MEMORY OF H. F. LOCKLAR

On Sunday night, April 15, 1943, very soon after the shades of night had fallen on the peaceful home of our neighbor and friend, Mr. H. F. Locklar, it was sadly but calmly disturbed by the Death Angel who claimed for his victim the soul of the affectionate husband and loving father, H. F. Locklar.

Mr. Locklar had been in declining health for several months but as his death came almost suddenly, it was very shocking. He was perfectly resigned to meet the ordeal through which he had to pass, was conscious to the last, expressed his readiness to pass into the Great Beyond, and bade those of his family who were at his bedside a sweet goodbye. He admonished them to live right and to be in the Sweet Bye and Bye. The parting was sad and almost unbearable, but God knew best and we must be resigned to His will.

Mr. Locklar was born in Barbour County, December 28, 1864, but he lived most of his life in Pike and Coffee Counties. He lived a good, honest life. He taught his children to live honorably and uprightly through every temptation that might come to them.

He was married to Miss Hattie Judson Kirkland in the month of December, 1891. They lived happily together for more than fifty years. Just after he was stricken and just before his passing he said to his good wife: "Come and let me kiss you good bye so that I may have time to bid the children good bye." Such experiences are sad but should not be constrained to live better than we do?

To these years of companionship were born eleven children, nine of whom survive the passing of their loving father. They are: John, Oscar and Jim Locklar, of New Brockton; Mrs. Eugene and Jim Bean Wilkes, of New Brockton; Mrs. Henry W. Bean, of Enterprise; Professor Harvey Locklar, of Goodman; and Bill J. Charley Locklar, of Elba, Ala. He is also survived by 25 grand-children and six great-grandchildren. Mr. Locklar joined the Missionary Baptist Church here. His church life has been very consistent and he was always ready to do what he could for the church and the cause it represents.

A very sweet and impressive funeral was held for him at the New Brockton Baptist Church, Rev. W. M. Bush, a former pastor, and Rev. F. J. Fleming, present pastor, officiating.

The active pallbearers were: J. A. Wilkes, Sr., Pearce Ramsey, Wade H. Sawyer, John Henry Jones, Herbert Jones and Howard Wise. Honorary pallbearers were: Prof. Robertson, Henry Johnson, S. D. Fyler, J. A. Sawyer, J. A. Brock, Guy Turner, Wayland Young, Gus Young, Tom Allen, Lee English, Oscar English, J. E. Pittman and Rev. Luke Rainey. Mr. Locklar was interred in the New Brockton cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Willis.

Will We Let Them Down?

The people of Elba and the Western Division of Coffee have always responded to every worthy and patriotic call in a most generous manner, and we commend them for their attitude. But at this time West Coffee citizens have fallen far short in their contributions to the War Relief Campaign of the American Red Cross, and the situation is a very embarrassing one.

The campaign should have been put on in March when the nationwide appeal was being made and during which thousands of communities raised their quotas and hundreds far exceeded the amounts assigned to them. Through a lack of co-operation here in Elba our campaign plans for March were a complete failure. An area wide campaign was then planned for a two-week period ending April 17. The Lions Club of Elba, very graciously came to the rescue of the local chapter and assisted in putting on a campaign throughout the city and the Elba area. We are indeed grateful for the help of this organization.

Officers of the Lions Club named committees to canvass every street in Elba. At this writing, no reports have been received from some sections of the city. We do not know whether the canvassers failed to do their job, or whether people in some sections just did not contribute to the cause. The same situation applies to numbers of community chairmen who were asked to serve. If they made any campaign to secure funds for War Relief Work, reports of their efforts have reached chapter headquarters.

Elba Chapter, which embraces territory in the Western Division of the County, was assigned a quota of $3,000.00. Up to Tuesday morning, less than $1,200.00 had been turned over to the war fund treasurer. This indeed is a very poor showing for people of the Western Division of Coffee. Is this the answer we shall have to give to those who are working day and night in every land and country to bring relief and comfort to those in tragedy, sickness and other misfortunes?

The American Red Cross is devoting the major portion of its activities to our men in service—your son or your neighbor's son—wherever he is located, in a training camp or at the battle front in one of the distant lands and Cross nurses and workers go there when your boy goes. They render every service possible to be rendered. Thousands of lives are being saved through the efforts of the Red Cross, and hundreds of thousands of lives are being saved through the efforts of the American Red Cross through voluntary contributions from patriotic American citizens.

Locally, hundreds of soldiers and their families have been aided through the "home service" department of Elba Chapter. It was necessary last fall to secure a full-time paid worker for these services. She is kept busy day and night making contacts with service men and their families in cases of sickness, death and other causes. It would seem that these services are indispensable, but with the very small contribution so far made we do not know what will be done. Can we afford to let them down?

Many people, no doubt, have made sacrifices in contributing to the war relief fund. Others have given one dollar where they should have given five or ten. Many have not contributed anything. WILL THE CITIZENS OF WEST COFFEE LET THE MATTER REST WHERE IT IS? This can only be answered by each and every one for himself.

Another matter which must be called to attention now is the Red Cross Sewing Room and Surgical Dressing program. There is much work to be done in both projects. Garments for relief work must be made, and thousands of surgical dressings must be made for use of nurses who are trying to aid the sick and wounded on the battle fields. The material is on hand, but voluntary workers are too few. Women of Elba are not co-operating in the charge of these projects. Some days no workers show up to aid in this work. On other days only a small number volunteer a few hours work. One Elba woman was heard to say last week that the majority of workers who did volunteer for these services were those who did not have any boys in military service. Where are those mothers who should be willing to devote a part of their spare time in making the surgical dressing that might be used to bind the wounds of their sons?

It not only takes money to carry on the far flung activities of the American Red Cross, but it also calls for a little sacrifice of time and energy. Every man, woman, boy and girl has a responsibility at this very moment. ARE YOU WILLING TO ACCEPT YOUR RESPONSIBILITY AND GIVE OF YOUR MONEY AND TIME, OR SHALL WE "LET THEM DOWN?"

WEST COFFEE CHAPTER,

PRESSURE COOKERS WILL BE RATIONED

Information from the Food Distribution Administration indicates that approximately 12,000,000 pressure cookers will be immediately available in the South and West. No information is available as to how many will be allotted to Coffee County.

Since the supply of pressure cookers will not meet the demand, it has been determined that they will be rationed. Cookers which will be made available in Coffee County will be distributed through regular dealers and will be sold to persons having purchase certificates.

Persons who have need for a pressure cooker are instructed to file an application for a purchase certificate. This can be done at the County Agent's office in Enterprise or Elba.

PETER AND JOHN PREACH TO SAMARITANS

LESSON TEXT—Acts 8:14-25.
GOLDEN TEXT—Lift up your eyes, ye holy ones, for they are white already to harvest—John 4:35.

The Church as it grows has problems, and so God calls leaders to serve Him in meeting and setting them for His glory and the good of the Church.

Philip had gone to Samaria (as a result of the first persecution of the Church) and there he had been used of God to bring many to faith in Christ. Now that the new groups of believers needed guidance and instruction, Peter and John were sent to help them (v. 14).

A proper understanding of, and attitude toward, God's gracious gift of salvation is most important. New converts must recognize that it is a gift: that it cannot be earned or bought, and that it is a life of service.

All three of these matters are covered in our lesson.

I. Spiritual Life and Power. Is God's Gift to Believers (v. 14-17).

The Holy Spirit was received by these early members of the Church, and the laying on of the apostles' hands, but later He came directly into the believer's heart the moment he believed. This is our most blessed privilege, and it is the provision for our every need as followers of Christ, to recognize the indwelling Holy Spirit.

What a glorious truth it is that the believer is indwelt by the Holy Spirit. He who is a divine person, not just a power or influence (1 Cor. 6:19). This is every believer's privilege, and it is the greatest, for it is the One who gives grace for holy living, and empowers for service.

The greatest power in all the world—the power of the infinite God—is this available to every true and yielded believer, as God's free gift.

One then is all boasting of our own strength, and none are all excuses for weakness and careless living. The power and grace are His, and He gives them to us as His gift. Christian faith is a fullness of the Holy Spirit who dwells in us, to lift and lead us as He will.

II. Spiritual Life and Power Cannot Be Bought by Works or Money (v. 18-24).

Men of this world are so used to putting their trust in money that they come to think that one can buy anything. To them every man and every desirable thing must have its price. Let us be clear that there are things which cannot be bought, and that the best things in life bear no price tag. A mother's love, friendship, fellowship with God—priceless are they, but not for sale.

Above all let it be clear that eternal life, and the power of the Holy Spirit, cannot be gained by giving up good works, nor by payment in the coin of this world.

Simon Magus wanted this power to improve his business as a magician. He made a very gross proposal, but one wonders whether he was any more to be censured than many in the Church today who are doing the same thing, though by more cultured and skillful methods.

Not only are there those who are trying to buy their own way into heaven, but also those who by holding the purse strings, try to control the message of the preacher. What about those who by their financial gifts seek to gain control of church organizations?

Their efforts are doomed to ultimate failure—God will see to that—but in the meantime they do much harm to the cause of Christ. Many a church and pastor would like to rise up and say with Peter, "Thy money perish with thee."

III. Spiritual Life and Power Should Result in Testimony (v. 25).

Peter and John set the Samaritan Christians a good example as they went back to Jerusalem, by permitting the Holy Spirit to use them to testify and to teach the Word of the Lord in many of their villages.

One of the great hindrances to the growth of the great commission has been that Christians have received spiritual life, and even spiritual power, as though it were something for their own gratification or comfort. They have not seen it in testimony and in life.

The Holy Spirit does not speak of Himself. He guides the believer into all truth (John 16:13), particularly the truth regarding Christ. The Spirit's primary interest is to glorify Christ (John 16:14).

It follows then that the Spirit-filled believer will be busy about speaking for Christ and glorifying His name. The Holy Spirit is ready to teach even the words to say that Christ may be lifted up and men be saved.

Peter and John, as good leaders of these new Samaritan believers, gave them by word and example a good foundation for growth in grace and usefulness to Christ.

1. Results in the winter of 1942 and 1943 showed that peanut fields can be cleaned by hogs without complete destruction to cover crops.

2. Early planted cover crops that were established before gleaning began, suffered much less damage than cover crops that were planted later.

3. Cover crops that were planted near the time that hogs were turned in fields were almost completely destroyed.

4. The most promising method of planting tried this year was that of sowing seed just ahead of the plow.

5. The next most successful method was that of drilling the seed in the middles after peanuts were harvested.

6. Cover crops sown broadcast and disced in after runner peanuts were harvested suffered most serious damage.

CLAYD CLARK, Register.

GOVERNMENT IS UNABLE TO Move Stores, Brazilian Scientist Reports.

NEW YORK.—While Americans must ration their consumption of food, their government owns more than one billion pounds of coffee beans stored in Brazilian warehouses. It is unable to transport to the United States, it was reported here by Dr. Moacyr E. Alvares, secretary-general of the national committee for the prevention of blindness in Brazil and professor of ophthalmology at the Sao Paulo school of medicine.

Change in Feeling.

Dr. Alvares, who arrived here by clipper from Brazil to address a meeting of the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, said there is a great change in feeling for the United States through-out Latin America.

"We Brazilians the America more and more," he said with a smile, "with your great country, never so friendly as now. The people of Brazil feel that Americans and Brazilians stand for the same democratic ideals."

Dr. Alvares, who was in Argentina last summer, declared that more than 80 per cent of the people of that country are pro-Allies and sympathize. He said that on the basis of his travels and experience there would back with enthusiasm any action of their government to win the war.

War Stops Economy.

The war has upset the economy of most of the American countries that counted on their trade with the United States, Dr. Alvares declared. He pointed out that in Brazil, for example, no one is allowed to use a private automobile and that many coffee plantations are being converted to cotton, alfalfa and soy bean cultivation.

Dr. Alvares will confer with American leaders about the Pan American congress of ophthalmology scheduled for Montevideo next November. He is the secretary-general of the congress.

He said that through Latin America about one person out of every thousand is blind. He declared that at least 75 per cent of such blindness can be prevented. For the first time, he added, many Latin American countries are organizing societies for the prevention of blindness and these organizations are endeavoring to spread education about sight and to make available the best medical facilities for combating diseases of the eye.

At birth in Princeton hospital, they weighed within 1 1/2 ounces of each other, and have varied little in height or weight since then. There were only a few hours difference in times they learned to walk and talk.

They had the whooping cough and mumps together, and in February, 1941, they both underwent identical infections within an hour. This time it was their tonsils. Both doctors and the same cryptos with identical infections, and underwent tonsilectomies.

VANCOUVER, B. C.—When one of the officials instructed a Victory loan salesman to take a trip out to the B. C. penitentiary to "sell a couple of bonds" he didn't think the salesman would take him seriously.

The salesman went out anyway and when he returned to the office he announced, rather proudly, that he had sold two $500 bonds.

"Two Chinese prisoners bought 'em," he said. "There's a good market there. A number of other inmates have signified their willingness to purchase later on."

Warrant, Flight Officers Ruled Entitled to Salute

WASHINGTON.—The war department solved a problem in military etiquette by ruling that warrant officers and flight officers are entitled to salutes from enlisted men and non-commissioned officers.

FAMILY REUNION

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. I. A. Napper, of Troy, Route 2, Sunday, May 9, in honor of his 86th birthday. He has four sons, four daughters, 45 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

We are sorry that two of his children could not attend. They were Mrs. Ceph. Simmons of Brantley and Mrs. Aaron Napper of Jack, Route 1. A majority of his grandchildren and great-grandchildren were present. We were proud of the attendance of a few friends. Every one enjoyed the dinner.

The day was enjoyed by all even though it was rainy. We all wish for him many more happy birthdays.

Farm Income Expected to Go Much Higher in 1943

WASHINGTON.—Farm income next year will be between $10,000,000,000 and $10,500,000,000, compared with the estimated record income of $9,800,000,000 for this year, the department of agriculture predicted.

The estimate for this year placed the farm income at about $10,000,000,000 greater than the previous record in 1939.

"Farmers in 1943 will probably produce more livestock, but crop production may be smaller than the record output of this year, unless weather conditions again are exceptionally favorable," the department said.

Plane Output Doubled in Year

Tonnage Is Tripled Since Pearl Harbor, Aircraft Industry Reports.

WASHINGTON.—American aircraft builders turned out more planes in the first year of the present war than they built in all the 23 peacetime years following the First World war, the Aeronautics Chamber of Commerce states. On the more significant tonnage basis, it added, production was nearly three times as great as in the 23-year period.

P. Newton, senior vice president of the chamber, summarized the year's war plane accomplishments as follows:

"While warplane production numerically is up 100 per cent above Pearl Harbor, production measured by tonnage of warplanes built is nearly three times that amount."

"Heavy four-engine long-range bombers, the serial dreadnaughts which are smashing Axis hopes of world conquest in every quarter, has increased substantially."

"Production of aircraft engines is up about 240 per cent, measured in terms of the fact that the airplane now being delivered every 15 days represents more in dollar volume than the total plane output during the First World War."

The tonnage and man-hour increases emphasize the production morale of the industry," Mr. Newton said. "The fact that the planes that are accepted by the army, navy, War Production board and other government agencies as true measurement of production than the unit output index."

Mr. Newton placed the value of planes produced for war in the last year of peace.

New Bandage Stops Wound Infections

Surgeon at Johns Hopkins Reports Discovery.

BALTIMORE.—Development of a tough and translucent film of medicated cellulose which can effectively shut out infection from war wounds and burns, yet is easily carried in a soldier's first-aid kit, was reported here.

The paraffin, pliable sulfadiazine bandage was developed by Dr. Kenneth L. Pickrel of the department of surgery at the Johns Hopkins medical school.

Particularly valuable in the case of burns, the film also has been used in surgery for such purposes as covering recent incisions, lacerations and abrasions and hastening "closure and regeneration of perforated eardrums."

Dr. Pickrel disclosed that the discovery came from the use of a solution containing sulfadiazine.

"This solution, when used on burned patients, had several advantages," he wrote. "Since it was an aqueous solution the drying effect of the film was avoided, and the film formed over the burned surface without the need of sutures."

"In an attempt to remedy these difficulties medicated cellulose has been added, and this has been enhanced the drying and film-forming properties."

"While studying various drying agents and plastic substances it occurred to the writer that a preformed sulfadiazine film might serve a very useful purpose in surgery."

The first such films were made about a year ago, and Dr. Pickrel formed them by the use of a special technique which has altered somewhat so that the resulting film is thin, strong, pliable, slightly elastic and translucent," he said.

U. S. Air Corps Officers Share All, Even Illness

SOMEWHERE IN AUSTRALIA—Lieut. William Coleman of Jackson, Miss., and Lieut. William Rowe of Elba, Ala., are two of the U. S. air corps officers who have shared their good—and bad—luck together since the Pacific war started.

They graduated from Kelly and Randolph Field together, went to the Philippines in the same transport last November, were in the same shock, and each has been credited with downing a Japanese plane shot down.

They have more in common. They were shot by a single Japanese Bataan, were evacuated together from the Philippines as essential air corps personnel, and—just to maintain the friendship—Coleman succumbed to the malaria germ 36 hours after Rowe landed.

Today they share twin beds in the same military hospital "somewhere in Australia" and both have been recommended for a decoration for heroism.

This War Dog Can Handle Any Assignment Allotted

LONDON—Slag, all-black mongrel pet of the famed "Fighting British" commandos, is a dog who can handle any assignment that is given.

He was adopted by the Commandos when only a pup two years ago and ever since has been a faithful training partner. His master, who has covered a greater mileage than any other dog in the country.

Slag only missed the record-breaking record when he was hit by a stray bullet and had to take a short rest in the hospital. While, by the way, is some testimony to the dog's endurance—40 feet is a long drop.

When Lord Louis Mountbatten recently reviewed the Fighting Fourth, one of the first things he did was to speak to Slag. Well, he didn't speak to Slag, but he did proudly at attention.

Woman Welder Issues Challenge to a Duel

PASCAGOULA, MISS.—Attention, women welders.

Mrs. Jennie Mae Turner, who holds an assortment of welding records at the Ingalls shipyard here, challenged any woman welder in the United States to a welding duel.

Mrs. Turner claims she can do more welding in a day than any other woman. On the record she has:

Often completed a nine-hour welding quota in five hours.

Blonde Mrs. Turner won't tell her exact age (which, confidentially, is under 35), but she says she is the "youngest grandmother employed in any shipyard."

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

One of the most essential articles of equipment for our soldiers is his canteen. In equatorial countries and in other warm climates they are particularly important to the welfare of our fighting men.

Miss Jean Rhodes, student at Alabama College, Montevallo, visited relatives in Elba Sunday.

Miss Charlie Ellis and children of Columbus, Ga., visited relatives in Elba the past week-end.

Miss Marjorie Brunson, student at Alabama College, Montevallo, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Brunson, during the week-end.

Keep Your Victory Garden In The Fight

Keep your victory garden in the fight for right. Plenty of fresh wholesome vegetables for the family each during the growing season and a surplus for canning for eating during the winter time will help conserve the nation's food supply and improve the national health.

Farm women agree whole-heartedly with nutritionists and health leaders that total war means more than weapons. It means people of health and stamina, conscious of their democratic rights and responsibilities. Good health and better living are essential, and farm women are doing their part in contributing to the war effort by growing good gardens and canning surplus vegetables.

Keep on planting—keep on cultivating—and keep on canning, is the motto of many farm women who take pride in their fine gardens and full pantries.

We expect to have a car load of cans next week and our plant will open about JUNE 1. Will call for further information about program, call us now.

EARLY PLANTING GIVES LARGER SOYBEAN CROP

Auburn, Ala.—Soybeans which are to be cut for hay should be placed thick enough to produce fine stems and during the first half of May, advises J. C. Lowery, agronomist of Alabama Poly. Institute.

Based on results obtained at the Alabama Experiment Station, the best variety to plant for hay are: Ootootan, Laredo, and Tanager. Tokio, Tarheel, Biloxi and Mammoth Yellow make large yields but hay is of poor quality because of coarseness.

Plant two pecks per acre of basic slag or 200 to 400 pounds of superphosphate and 25 pounds of muriate of potash per acre at time of planting.
